

This unique lodging property is conveniently located on a high, wooded hill near Good Harbor Beach, and up above Route 127, the scenic road that connects Gloucester and Rockport. You'll stay near all the attractions and sites of Cape Ann, but in a quiet area where you can relax by the pool, or by your room or cottage.

You can enjoy a distant view of Good Harbor Beach and the Atlantic Ocean from the pool, and many sitting areas.

Gloucester's attractions are nearby in all directions. Our lobby is stocked with brochures and attraction information.
